"Animism" was a philosophy developed by James H. Madole based on values of individual personality, private enterprise and government by the intellectual elite. He attacked democracy as "rule by the ignorant mass" and rejected the "liberal democratic line" which he called the general idea of breaking down all forms of racial pride and the general idea of mongrelization of the races.

Chief of Police Jess Dingee, Beacon, NY PD, advised that [redacted] possessed information concerning a movement which was underway among students in the Beacon High School.

[redacted] related that the leader of the movement, which was known as "Youth of America" (62-80371), was James H. Madole, 224 E. Maine St., Beacon, NY, who was a student in the senior class at that high school.

According to [redacted] his son, [redacted] visited Madole's home on 10/17/45 with [redacted] and [redacted] two other high school students, and returned with a notebook containing information concerning "Youth of America." This information revealed that the group was also known as the "Animalist Youth Corps," and indicated that "Animalism" was the only correct form of government, that other governments were run by Jews and communists.

The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith (100-530) issued a pamphlet captioned, "Anti-Semitism in the United States in 1947." Discussing anti-Semitic activities in the NY area, it indicated that a new figure appeared during the year in the person of James Madole, head of the one-man "Animist" Party. The pamphlet stated that Madole, a prolific letter-writer, attempted by his correspondence to weld the scattered anti-Semitic leaders into a "nationalist" movement, presumably under his own leadership, but his movement made no noticeable progress.

During the course of an investigation of the National Blue Star Mothers of America, an organization closely associated with the Christian Nationalist Party Movement (62-43818), trash covers were placed on the officers of the first organization and W. Henry MacFarland, Jr., reportedly a member of that organization. The exhibits obtained revealed extensive correspondence on the part of MacFarland with members of various nationalist groups throughout the US. Among the individuals named was James H. Madole, national director of the "Animist Party", 224 E. Main St., Beacon, NY.

In reference to above trash covers on W. Henry McFarland, Jr., one of the letters dated 4/11/47 from James H. Madole revealed a claim on the part of Madole to the effect that the Animist Party was "acting as a central coordinating group" for various nationalist groups in all parts of America and Canada. These groups were not named by Madole.

A trash cover on W. Henry MacFarland, Jr., 876 Granite St., Philadelphia, Pa., disclosed that during the summer of 1948, MacFarland announced that "National Progress" was presenting its second Nationalist Guide Calendar of publications, organizations, individuals and activities. The guide was made available through this source and contained the following item under the caption, "Correspondence Wanted":

"Madole, James H. 224 East Main Street, Beacon, N.Y. desires correspondence with Nationalists and constructive right-wing thinkers who are interested in a unification of the anti-Communist, anti-Internationalist forces in America. Is Director of the American Renaissance League."

Modole of Beacon, NY, and Raymond Burke of the Bronx, both prolific writers and distributors of hate literature, were two of the professional agitators found in that Further, they had come to explode the tensions and give the disturbance an anti-Semitic and anti-Negro complexion, and they carried the slogans, "Behind Communism Stands the Jew" and "For My Country Against the Jew." The "NY Compass" dated 12/16/49 featured an article by James Allan entitled, "Sees Anti-Semitism Surging in Yorkville." The article revealed that a Yorkville Civil Rights Association had been set up to combat the activities of James H. Madole's NRP and to force Eugene Brand to stop selling the notorious California hate sheet, "The Broom," at his newsstand at 200 E. 86th St.

According to the article, Ernest S. Quimby, a long-time resident of Yorkville, stated that Madole's group was sponsoring periodic street-corner meetings in the community in a new attempt to incite anti-Jewish hysteria. Aiding Madole, he said, were a host of "nightshirts," including Kurt Mertig, head of the pro-Fascist Citizens Protective League. Quimby continued that similar meetings were being held in the Bronx where Madole's agents were setting up a "sort of hall of learning" containing the files of all anti-Semitic hate sheets.

On 1/2/50, "The Compass", NYC, carried an article (caption not given) by James Allan which revealed that on 11/1/49 Kurt Mertig, head of the Citizens Protective League, NYC, and James H. Madole attended a Yorkville, NY meeting called by the Pastorius Association and the Voters Alliance for Americans of German Ancestry to protest the dismantling of German war factories. Edward A. Fleckenstein, a lawyer who was one of the guiding spirits behind the resurgence of Pan-Germanism according to the article, said he refused to let Madole and Mertig speak until the meeting was almost over. He capitulated, "I couldn't snub them entirely."

The article identified the Pastorius Association of Greater NY as being organized as the political arm of 17 German-American social and cultural groups. It further indicated that the Voters Alliance was set up after a supposedly bitter split between Eugen Brand, Yorkville hate-sheet peddler, and pro-Fascist Kurt Mertig.

On 1/3/50, "The Compass" contained another article (caption not given) by James Allan which stated that police had cracked down on rabble-rousing open-air meetings sponsored by James H. Madole's pro-Fascist NRP at 90th St. and Second Ave. The article further stated that the NRP with headquarters in Madole's home town of Beacon, NY, was also active in Philadelphia where W. This man is an asthmatic fanatic not yet 24 years old who used to plug a pseudo-scientific philosophy called "prenarchistic animism," but who now talks of creating Peekskill-type riots in Yorkville as a prelude to uniting all extreme nationalist groups in the U. The December, 1954 edition of "Expose" newspaper featured the final article in a series of 4 articles entitled "I Am An American Fascist," by H. Keith Thompson (100-370871). In this installment, Thompson stated that during early 1953 he worked on the organization of a new cultural group known as the "American Committee for the Advancement of Western Culture." He related that months of work went into the formation of an aggressive committee from the ranks of American Nationalists, of Left, Right and Center, with a high-calibre European advisory staff. He indicated that the Board of Directors included James H. Madole.

According to Thompson, the organization was intended to be: (1) an advisory group to Americans on preservation of our traditions against the inroads of internationalist, "One-World," alien cultures and influences; (2) a political action group on questions of US domestic and foreign affairs; and (3) a group to safeguard the civil liberties of all Americans, regardless of their politics.

Modole and the NRP. This letter stated that the HCUA report would have you believe that it had made a "remarkable (?) expose of the most dangerous fascist group in the USA." It quoted "Expose," which it described as a "pro-Jewish, pro-Negro, anti-Christian, pro-Atheist publication," as stating that Modole had been taken over "thru a female and some easy money by a 'Mana Truhill,' whose real name seemed to be Emanuel Truhillo and whose education had been largely intensive courses at the Communist Party's Jefferson School in New York."

He stated that evidently Madole complied with municipal ordinances inasmuch as [redacted] noticed policemen at the edge of the crowd at every gathering; but Madole gave the impression of being "a wild man." His remarks primarily were concerned with attacks of an anti-Semitic nature on individuals of national and international importance, and the UN was also a primary target of Madole's. According to [redacted] Madole appeared to be poorly educated and many statements he made revealed a lack of background knowledge of his subject matter. [redacted] was never asked by Madole to join the NRP. Thompson, in contrast to Madole, was a clever speaker. The 4/9/56 edition of the "Jewish Newsletter," a biweekly review edited by William Zukerman, P.O.Box 117, Washington Bridge Station, NY 33, NY, carried an item entitled "The International Antisemitic Conspiracy." This item disclosed that Dr. Fayez Sayegh, Deputy Director of the Arab States Delegation, informed a correspondent of the "Jewish Newsletter" the previous week that the recent charges made by the ADL* (100-530) in the book, "Cross Currents" about a new international anti-Semitic conspiracy and the role of the Arab Information Center (AIC) in it were completely false. He denied that there had been any contact between any official or employee of the AIC and any known anti-Semite mentioned in "Cross Currents."

In response to questions about visits of the well known anti-Semite, James Madole, to the AIC, Dr. Sayegh pointed out the following. Madole tried on several occasions to see him. Madole was not received until the fifth visit when Dr. Sayegh granted him a two-minute interview. Madole's request for bulk quantities of AIC literature was rejected at that time. On two other occasions Dr. Sayegh refused to provide Madole's organization with speakers or lecturers from the AIC staff or panel of speakers.

DATE: MAY 4 - 1964

FROM

SAC, NEW YORK (105-6129) C.

SUBJECT:

JAMES HARTING MADOLE
RACIAL MATTERS
(OO: NEW YORK)

Re NY letter to Bureau, 1/30/64 and San Francisco letter to Bureau, 4/2/64.

Based on investigation conducted at MADLINE MADOLE Carmichael, California; at New Bedford, Massachusetts and at Saint Louis, Missouri, as reflected in referenced letters, it is believed that JAMES MADOLE, currently residing at 5248 Whitney Avenue, Carmichael, California, is the father of JAMES H. MADOLE, subject. GRACE MADOLE, mother of subject, according to her case file NY 105-19214, was divorced from JAMES MADOLE as of 1928 and was supporting a child. GRACE MADOLE was born 1/14/96. There is no indication that she has remarried. JAMES MADOLE of Carmichael, California, apparently has remarried and MADLINE MADOLE of Carmichael, California, is presumed to be his second wife.

It is not considered advisable to interview any relative of subject to verify the above conclusions. Comprehensive background information concerning subject was set forth in summary report of SA VINCENT J. ASCHERL, dated 11/29/63 at NY. No further inquiry into subject's background is being made at the present time by the NYO.

SUBJECT: JAMES HARTING MADOLE
RACIAL MATTERS
(OO: NY)

For the information of the Bureau, USA, SDNY, by communication dated 4/21/64, furnished NYO copy of indictments 1070 through 1098/1963 by the People of the State of New York vs. JAMES H. MADOLE, et al (Supreme Court, Bronx County, New York).

Justice GELLINOFF in April, 1964, dismissed ~~account~~ Number 1070 (Advocacy of Criminal Anarchy) on the grounds that the New York State Sedition Statute (Penal Law Section 161) had been superseded by Federal Law, and Congress had left no room for the state to supplement it. DA, Bronx County, New York, accordingly, forwarded copy of indictment, charging Advocacy of Criminal Anarchy, to the USA, SDNY for his attention. USA, SDNY requested NYO to obtain the facts in this matter at the Bronx DA's Office and report to him.

 Assistant DA, Bronx County, advised SA VINCENT J. ASCHERL on 5/21/64, that the original indictment included Advocacy of Criminal Anarchy and this ~~account~~ was dismissed by Justice GELLINOFF, who based his decision on (Pennsylvania v. NELSON, 350 U.S. 497). Justice GELLINOFF felt that under "Pennsylvania v. NELSON" the Federal Government had entered the field and that prosecution on this ~~account~~ should be reserved to the Federal Government.

I am enclosing some material on the subject of communism which you may find of interest.

Sincerely yours,

there is no derogatory information concerning her. Bufiles reflect that James H. Madole is probably identifiable with James H. Madole, President of the National Renaissance Party who was sentenced on July 16, 1964, to serve one to two years in the State Prison for the crime of riot.

Dear Sir,

Forgive me for intruding, but must tell you my respect and admiration for you is tremendous. I am deeply grieved at the verbal abuse you are receiving.

On Saturday Nov. 14, I received a piece of mail, from a person whose (typewritten) name and address on envelope was James H. Madole, #22 E. 99 Street, NYC. There was no message except printed matter which I did not read after looking over (black & white) cartoon sheet. It was violently anti-Negro, cartoon depicting what will happen between black & white school children going to integrated schools. I immediately tore it up and in the incinerator it went. I thought, some NUT. However on Mon. Eve Nov. 16 I was reading "The Far Left," by Billy James Hargis, and low and behold on page #240 - is James H. Madole. The names on Saturdays envelope from NYC. immediately came to mind. I could scarcely sleep - so about 7 or 7:10 a.m. I called the FBI #201 E. 69 Street NYC - told about the riot - inciting mail from James H. Madole gave them the address of the Man. Felt that literature, from a known Communist, could only wreak havoc, in the hand of bigots. I could cause no end of strife and should be stopped.

Was I right in reporting this to the FBI, or wasn't it important enough?

I do love America, and loathe Communism. It seems the politicians are offended if anything condemnatory is said about Communism, especially in the highest echelons of our Government.

Blessings, on your precious head, Mr. Hoover. If God be for you, who can be against you!?

My most fervent prayers are with you.

Mr. Madole must have gotten my name out of the newspapers. I am a patriotic letter writer.

Yours very truly

III. NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY (NRP) MEETINGS AT SUBJECT'S RESIDENCE

Between the dates of February 11, 1965 and November 19, 1967 166 meetings or social gatherings of the National Renaissance Party (NRP) were held at 10 West 90th Street, New York City, which is also the residence of JAMES H. MADOLE, Director of the National Renaissance Party.

NY 105-6129

NRP meetings are held every Thursday evening and the social gatherings usually take place on Sunday afternoon. However, both the meetings and social gatherings are quite similar since they usually consist of discussions involving diatribes against both Jews and Negroes with MADOLE normally occupying the dominant role in these discussions.

JAMES MADOLE is the principal speaker at all NRP meetings and occasionally invites other individuals to speak. His speeches are usually marked with anti-Semitic and anti-Negro attacks, reflecting his hatred of both Jews and Negroes.

NY T-1
February 15, 1965 -
November 22, 1967

A characterization of the NRP is contained in the appendix.

At the February 11, 1965 meeting of the NRP, MADOLE spoke critically of the tax system in the United States as well as the means employed by the government in raising money through the Federal Reserve System rather than through Congress.

At the NRP meeting held on February 25, 1965, MADOLE spoke of his plans for taking over the United States and all of North America. MADOLE said that once he gained a position of control in this country he would do away with state boundaries, eliminate boundaries between this country and Canada and between this country and Mexico. MADOLE further said that he would send all undesirables, that is, Jews and Negroes to Mexico or Africa.

IV. PUBLIC ACTIVITIES OF NRP
INVOLVING SUBJECT

On May 1, 1965, JAMES H. MADOLE, was present during a counter-demonstration staged by individuals associated with the NRP, in protest of a Communist Party May Day rally held in Union Square Park, New York City on that date. Although MADOLE was present he himself did not participate in the counter-demonstration.

NY T-2
May 3, 1965

On October 11, 1965, an NRP street rally, addressed by MADOLE was held at 84th Street and Second Avenue, New York City, beginning at 8:30 PM. When MADOLE started his speech, a group of Jewish War Veterans, who were present, began to sing "God Bless America". It was virtually impossible to hear MADOLE's speech because of the crowd's jeering. However, it could be understood that his speech was both anti-Negro and anti-Semitic. The street rally terminated at 9:15 PM.

NY T-1
October 15, 1965

On the evening of October 18, 1965, an NRP street rally was again held at 84th Street and Second Avenue, New York City, with about one thousand people gathered in the area. The crowd again jeered MADOLE and threw tomatoes at him when he launched into a denunciation of the Jews and Negroes.

NY T-1
October 22, 1965

On 12/4/65, MADOLE and seven others from the NRP, from 11:30 AM to 1:00 PM, picketed outside the British Empire Building, Fifth Avenue and 50th Street, New York City, in protest of Great Britain's policy toward Rhodesia.

NY T-1
December 5, 1965

NY 105-6129

On December 11, 1965, MADOLE together with ten other individuals representing the NRP, staged a rally from 10:30 AM to 2:00 PM at Times Square, to counter-demonstrate against a group who were themselves staging a demonstration to protest United States intervention in Vietnam.

NY T-1
December 15, 1965

On February 19, 1966, in Times Square, New York City MADOLE and six other members of the NRP staged a counter-demonstration against pickets protesting United States involvement in Vietnam. The NRP members carried signs which read, "Kill Communism", and "Join NRP". The NRP demonstration began at 12:30 PM and terminated without incident at 3:00 PM.

NY T-1
March 7, 1966

On March 18, 1966 a public meeting of the NRP was held at 8:15 PM at Robert F. Wagner, Junior High School, 220 East 76th Street, New York City with MADOLE as the principal speaker. The two hundred people present at this meeting heard MADOLE speak against the Jews and of the inferiority of the Negro race.

NY T-1
March 25, 1966

On April 30, 1966, MADOLE and nine other members of the NRP, demonstrated from 12:30 PM to 2:30 PM against a May Day rally then taking place in Union Square Park, New York City. The NRP demonstrators carried signs reading, "Down With Leninism and Communism", "Bomb Hanoi", and "Join the NRP".

NY T-1
May 6, 1966

A characterization of the United May Day Committee is set out in the appendix of this report.

NY 105-6129

On May 21, 1966, from 4:30 PM to 6:30 PM, MADOLE and ten other NRP representatives demonstrated outside the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York City in protest of United States Ambassador ARTHUR GOLDBERG's stated policy in the United Nations (UN) against Rhodesia. The NRP demonstrators carried signs which read, "The UN is a Jewish Front", "Civil Rights for Whites" and "Join the NRP".

NY T-1

On September 2, 1966, September 9, 1966 and November 4, 1966, the NRP held street rallies at 85th Street and First Avenue, New York City and at 85th Street and York Avenue, New York City, and featured MADOLE as the principal speaker.

MADOLE on these occasions spoke of the "unfair power" of the minorities in this country, and said minority groups held so much power that the "pure Americans" were suffering for it. He further told those in the audience who tried to drown him out that they were Jews who were afraid to hear the truth of what he was saying and that his hecklers could only get away with such tactics in the United States.

NY T-1

September 6, 1966 -

November 8, 1966

At about 6:45 PM on July 29, 1967, a group of seventeen individuals, connected with the NRP, appeared at the Court House in Newburgh, New York, where an NRP rally was scheduled for that evening.

After a wait of about thirty minutes, the seventeen were permitted to enter the Court House as was the general public. JAMES MADOLE, NRP leader, addressed the crowd and launched into an anti-Negro and anti-Semitic speech.

All Negroes, who comprised about 75% of the one hundred in attendance in the Court House, walked outside when MADOLE began his speech. They were joined outside by other Negroes and started to assemble on the court house steps. When dispersed by the local police, one of the Negroes protested and was arrested. The police managed to disperse the Negro crowd and escorted the NRP delegation out of the area in a police van. No further incidents occurred at that time.

NY 105-6129

Later that same evening disturbances broke out in the Negro section of Newburgh, spread to the downtown area of Newburgh, and continued until early the next morning, July 30, 1967. The disturbances resumed on the night of July 31, 1967 and concluded with a total of 72 arrests made by the Newburgh Police Department. However, there was no NRP involvement beyond the early evening of July 29, 1967.

The NRP sponsored a rally at Public School 169, East 87th Street, New York City, on December 8, 1967 for the purpose of restoring "white power" in the United States and to demand "civil rights" for white taxpayers. The rally lasted from 7:30 PM to 9:30 PM and MADOLE appeared as the principal speaker.

MADOLE in his address said that if he were President of the United States he would not allow any Jews into this country and would deport those Jews and Negroes already in the country.

MADOLE also said he would eliminate relief payments and described the Vietnam War as a "no-win war".

MADOLE said the United States is not winning the war in Vietnam because there are so many Communists in high places in the United States government.

During his speech, MADOLE was heckled by four people in the audience who wore black eye patches and rattled newspapers. MADOLE told these four to shut up or leave the room. After a discussion with a police official these four people apparently agreed to cease their disturbing activities.

V. ASSOCIATION WITH OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

On March 19, 1967, MADOLE and about ten of his followers from the NRP visited a meeting of the White Party of America (WPA) held in Alexandria, Virginia on that date. MADOLE was the principal speaker at this meeting and his speech consisted of an attack against Negroes and Jews and Communists in the United States and the bad effect they had on the administration of this country.

MADOLE said his NRP program would take care of the Negro and Jewish problem in the United States provided he can get it into operation in the future. According to MADOLE, the Christian of America is exploited by the Jew and the Negro has all the power he has because of the Jew who controls him.

MADOLE continued that the Jew does not want the war in Vietnam to end because if it does he will lose billions of dollars. President JOHNSON wants to keep the Jew happy and so does not want to see an end to the war in Vietnam.

Gentiles comprise almost the entire United States armed forces in Vietnam because all Jews of draft age are successful in obtaining college deferments.

The Jew is trying to take control of the United States with the Negro as a lackey under his control. In 1913 the Jews started to take over control of the government in the United States through the institution then of the Federal Reserve Act which gave the Jews greater control of the country's money, a control which belongs to Congress.

MADOLE, who spoke for about one and one-half hours, concluded by stating white people made America great but these same white people are permitting the Jews to take away this greatness.

NY 105-6129

On March 19, 1967, MADOLE also conferred with [redacted] of the WPA, and invited him to be a guest speaker at NRP rallies scheduled to be held later in the year in the Ridgewood and Yorkville sections of New York City.

A characterization of the White Party of America (WPA) is set out in the appendix of this report.

VI. PUBLISHED STATEMENT BY SUBJECT

Subject is the editor of the "National Renaissance Bulletin" official organ of the NRP. This bulletin is published on a bi-monthly basis.

In an article in the March-April, 1967 issue of the "National Renaissance Bulletin" written by subject, he speaks of the United States policy in South Vietnam and says that "President LYNDON JOHNSON and the International Financiers who dominate our economic and political life have no intention of either winning or terminating the holocaust in Southeast Asia".

He continues in the article that a war won through the annihilation of Hanoi and Haiphong in North Vietnam would cause total economic collapse in the United States, a situation which "corrupt bureaucrats, International Financiers, and Jewish market operators and currency manipulators" do not wish to face.

MADOLE concludes in this article that "wars are truly the Jew's harvest" and that the only individuals who want the war to continue in its present state and who are benefitting ^{from} "American intervention in South Vietnam" are Jews.

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY (NRP)

On July 20, 1967, a source advised that the National Renaissance Party (NRP) was founded in 1949, by JAMES H. MADOLE, who continues to serve as its National Director and is in complete control of the NRP.

The source further stated that the NRP has its headquarters in the residence of JAMES H. MADOLE at 10 West 90th Street, New York, New York. Weekly meetings are held at this location on Thursday evenings.

The source described the NRP as an anti-Negro, anti-Semitic and neo-Fascist organization.

This source stated on July 28, 1966, that JAMES H. MADOLE, as of October, 1965, distributed a printed "program of the NRP", which program had as its announced purpose the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State". According to the program, this would be accomplished by calling a Constitutional Convention to ratify the necessary amendments to the United States Constitution in order to carry out the NRP program for the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State".

This source further advised that as of July 28, 1966, this "program of the NRP" remains in effect and that the anti-Negro and anti-Semitic nature of the NRP is exemplified by the following excerpts from this program:

1. Enact and rigidly enforce legislation to restrict the benefits of American citizenship to mentally and genetically sound members of the Caucasian race.
2. Enact legislation to prohibit intermarriage between white and non-whites.

3. The Jewish race shall be deprived by suitable legislation of their American citizenship and shall henceforth be prohibited from holding any professional, political or educational posts within the Racial Nationalist State. The Jew constitutes an alien virus in our national bloodstream and, as such, he must be purged from our cultural, economic, and political life.
4. Enact legislation to hasten the repatriation of American Negroes to the newly independent black nations on the African continent under the auspices and guidance of black nationalist leadership in the United States.
5. The establishment of a selective immigration policy whose primary purpose is to attract the best European racial stock to the North American Continent in order to utilize their vast energy and talent in the task of creating a dynamic, expanding White Empire capable of withstanding the encroachments of the primitive, colored world led by the Oriental colossus, Red China.

UNITED MAY DAY COMMITTEE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, to supersede Guide published on January 2, 1957, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., sets forth the following concerning United May Day Committee:

1. "Found to be a 'Communist-front organization' within the meaning of the Internal Security Act of 1950 and ordered to register as such with the Attorney General.

"The function which constitutes the basic activity of the UMDC (United May Day Committee) involves a demonstration on or about the first day of May each year in New York City." " the May Day demonstration  through 1952 involved a parade which terminated at Union Square, with a review of the parade contingents as they entered the Square by those in charge or participating. This always involved many of the (Communist) Party's highest leaders, followed by speeches by leaders of the various parade contingents who were usually called to the reviewing platform as they entered the Square. In 1953, 1954, and 1955, only the rally with speeches at Union Square was held, the parade permit having been denied by city authorities in 1953 and none having been applied for in 1954 and 1955.  The UMDC, in short, promotes, arranges, and conducts the yearly May Day demonstration."

"The May Day demonstration is a Party function carried out through its creature, respondent (UMDC), to demonstrate to the rest of the world Communist movement the international solidarity and dedication of the Party to the objective of that movement, while seeking to create and intensify class conflicts here and gain American labor's acceptance of Party policies and programs. As conducted by respondent, the May Day demonstration is considered by the Party a manifestation of its leadership of the class struggle, an exercise of mass movement against capitalism.

UNITED MAY DAY COMMITTEE

" The Party has over the years, each spring, activated respondent and instituted preparations for the May Day demonstration, marshalling its entire apparatus from national to club level by intra-Party directives to carry out this demonstration in conjunction with respondent. It supports respondent financially and otherwise and through a predominance of its representatives in respondent, dominates and controls respondent in the performance of its functions.

"Each year respondent  solicits and arranges for other organizations and individuals to participate in the demonstration; raises and disburses funds to defray the expenses involved;  and its officers, predominantly Party members, preside over the demonstration." "Also, in the massive quantities of literature issued and distributed under its various names, in the placards and banners displayed and in the speeches and resolutions offered in Union Square, the precise policies and programs of the Party are widely propagated and support for their implementation urged."

" uncontradicted evidence compels the conclusion that respondent has been a continuous organization known as the 'United May Day Committee,' despite variations in its 'formal' name. E. Interview

On March 1, 1968, JAMES HARTING MADOLE was interviewed by Special Agents (SAs) of the FBI at headquarters of the National Renaissance Party (NRP), 10 West 90th Street, New York City. At that time, MADOLE stated he had not travelled outside the New York City area except when he and other NRP members journeyed to Washington, D.C. to counterdemonstrate against pickets at the Pentagon opposing United States intervention in Vietnam.

A characterization of the NRP appears in the Appendix attached hereto.

He stated he intends to continue distributing NRP literature, holding rallies, et cetera, as long as he feels he can act as an effective counter measure to "communist and communist inspired activities".

MADOLE stated he did not have to exert himself to gain support and members for the NRP in that Americans were tired of supporting the "welfare state" with heavy tax burdens and felt the manner the United States forces were fighting in Vietnam was poor. He also advised that the white people of the country were becoming alarmed over cries of "black power" and the threat of black militants. He projected that the people who built America were not about to sit back and watch it being destroyed by irresponsible black hordes.

MADOLE predicted that eventually the NRP will be a decisive political power which will attract those citizens who have become disillusioned with the socialistic theories adopted by both major political parties in America.

MADOLE concluded by stating that he abhors violence and sees no purpose in it to effect any good. He stated that force was not necessary to propagate his ideas, because the chaos engendered by present policies of the United States government will perform that task for him.

On April 26, 1968, NY T-1 advised that 85 people attended a NRP public meeting on April 26, 1968, held at P.S. 169, New York City. NY 105-6129

A characterization of the WPA and NSWPP appear in the Appendix attached hereto.

The above sources advised that the objective of this convention was to consolidate the forces of the various right wing groups to fight Jewish and negro problems.

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY

On May 29, 1968, a source advised that the National Renaissance Party (NRP) was founded in 1949, by JAMES H. MADOLE, who continues to serve as its National Director and is in complete control of the NRP.

The source further stated that the NRP has its headquarters in the residence of JAMES H. MADOLE at 10 West 90th Street, New York, New York. Weekly meetings are held at this location on Thursday evenings.

The source described the NRP as an anti-Negro, anti-Semitic and neo-Fascist organization.

This source stated on July 28, 1966, that JAMES H. MADOLE, as of October, 1955, distributed a printed "program of the NRP", which program had as its announced purpose the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State". According to the program, this would be accomplished by calling a Constitutional Convention to ratify the necessary amendments to the United States Constitution in order to carry out the NRP program for the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State".

This source further advised that as of May 29, 1968, this "program of the NRP" remains in effect and that the anti-Negro and anti-Semitic nature of the NRP is exemplified by the following excerpts from this program:

1. Enact and rigidly enforce legislation to restrict the benefits of American citizenship to mentally and genetically sound members of the Caucasian race.

2. Enact legislation to prohibit intermarriage between white and non-white.

3. The Jewish race shall be deprived by suitable legislation of their American citizenship and shall henceforth be prohibited from holding any professional, political or educational posts within the Racial Nationalist State. The Jew constitutes an alien virus in our national bloodstream and, as such, he must be purged from our cultural, economic, and political life.

4. Enact legislation to hasten the repatriation of American Negroes to the newly independent black nations on the African continent under the auspices and guidance of black nationalist leadership in the United States.

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY

5. The establishment of a selective immigration policy whose primary purpose is to attract the best European racial stock to the North American Continent in order to utilize their vast energy and talent in the task of creating a dynamic, expanding White Empire capable of withstanding the encroachments of the primitive, colored world led by the Oriental colossus, Red China.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY,
Also Known As The American Nazi Party,
American Nazis, The World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists, The George Lincoln Rockwell Party

On May 29, 1968, a source advised that the American Nazi Party - World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP-WUFENS) was organized by GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL at Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1956. It was based upon the concept of an international "National Socialist" movement, as espoused by the German Nazi Party, which was headed by ADOLF HITLER. The ANP-WUFENS supports and follows the line of hatred against Negroes, Jews, and Communists, through speeches, published literature, demonstrations, and publicity-seeking devices for the purpose of seeking a legitimate dominant political party within the United States and in foreign countries.

"The Richmond News Leader" issue dated April 4, 1963, published daily at Richmond, Virginia, stated that this organization is chartered in the State of Virginia as "The George Lincoln Rockwell Party" and that the Virginia Assembly prohibits the use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia-chartered organization. As of January 1, 1967, the official name of this organization was changed to "National Socialist White People's Party", according to Commander ROCKWELL.

On August 25, 1967, GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL was assassinated in Arlington, Virginia, near the ANP Headquarters Building. The August 28, 1967, issue of the "Northern Virginia Sun", a daily newspaper published at Arlington, Virginia, stated that MATTHIAS KOEHL, Jr., took command of the Party after ROCKWELL's assassination.

WHITE PARTY OF AMERICA

On September 16, 1965, KARL ROGERS ALLEN, JR., who identified himself as the leader of the White Party of America (WPA), advised that he, along with several other former members of the American Nazi Party (ANP), formed the WPA during the early part of 1964, in order to advance the cause of the white man in the United States and eventually throughout the world.

This organization was officially launched on April 11, 1964, when it sponsored picketing in Washington, D.C., Richmond, Virginia, and Baltimore, Maryland, in opposition to civil rights legislation and civil rights demonstrations. Its national headquarters was transferred from 1216 New York Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., to 1019 King Street, Alexandria, Virginia, on April 1, 1965.

It was initially the aim of the WPA to sponsor picketings and demonstrations where it was believed such would be of value and to publicize its program through pamphlets and similar media. The WPA has been inactive due to a lack of funds and its only publications to date have been the April and May, 1964, issues of its official publications, "The White Letter."

He added that the WPA is still in the formative stage but it will uphold the Constitution of the United States and will always act within the limits of the law. He noted that the WPA will serve as a "home for people who want to preserve the white race" and cannot find a home for themselves in either of the major political parties in the United States.

A characterization of the National Socialist White People's Party, also known as the American Nazi Party, is set out separately.

This record shows that MADOLE was arrested by the New York City Police Department at the Port Authority Bus Terminal of New York on January 17, 1971. MADOLE was charged with "possession of weapon (knife), assault, third degree, and harassment". New York City Police Department records indicate these charges were subsequently dismissed.

This source advised that the above arrest occurred when MADOLE, with other NRP members, were passing out NRP literature at the Port Authority Bus Terminal. The JDL, founded in 1968, is composed primarily of young Jewish militants who consider themselves as defenders of "Jewish Rights." Demonstrations attempting to dramatize the Jewish problem in Russia, and similar demonstrations against Arab establishments have often resulted in violence. Rabbi MEIR KAHANE, founder and National Director, has stated publicly on many occasions that violence is sometimes necessary to accomplish the aims of the JDL.

NOTE:

Subject is the National Director of the National Renaissance Party (NRP), a white hate organization of limited scope and activity. The NRP does publish, however, the "National Renaissance Bulletin" which is available for national distribution and subject continues to be involved in antiblack and anti-Semitic activity. Referenced letter rejected subject for inclusion on the ADEX because no information had been developed indicating subject would be a danger to the internal security of the United States. Standards pertaining to Category IV of the ADEX call for inclusion of those, not qualified for Categories I, II or III, who are likely to furnish assistance to extremist elements because of their sympathy or ideology.

ReBulet to NY, dated 9/2/71.

Relet reflects as follows:

"While information available indicates subject is a leader in a white extremist organization being founder and current National Director of the National Renaissance Party (NRP), there is no information indicating he would be a danger to the internal security of the US in time of a national emergency. Your recommendation that subject be placed on Security Index (SI) is therefore denied."

MADOLE was interviewed by BuAgents on 3/1/68. During the interview, MADOLE stated that he abhors violence and sees no purpose in it to effect any good. He stated that force was not necessary to propogate his ideas because the chaos engendered by present policies of the US Government will perform that task for him.

On 4/2/71, MADOLE was attacked by an individual who hit him in the head with a brick. It was anticipated that at that time MADOLE would have to have a metal plate placed in his head.

The history of the NRP is one reflecting an organization of insignificant influence within the right wing movement and one which could be characterized as a source of income for MADOLE through the sale of the "National Renaissance Bulletin".

In view of the remarks set forth in reBulet, NY is not recommending MADOLE be placed on the ADEX. His activities will continue to be monitored and if at such time it is the opinion of the New York Office that he can justifiably be placed upon the ADEX, the recommendation will be made at that time.

JAMES H. MADOLE Summary

The central files of this Bureau reveal that one James Harting Madole, born July 7, 1927, New Bedford, Massachusetts, founded, in 1949, the National Renaissance Party (NRP) and continues to serve as its national director. A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the NRP is headquartered in Madole's residence at 10 East 90th Street, Apartment 3, New York, New York, where weekly meetings are held. The source described the NRP as an anti-Negro, anti-Semitic and neo-Fascist organization.

The source further advised that as of April 16, 1970, the NRP program remained in effect and included intentions to prohibit intermarriage of the races, restrict American citizenship to mentally and genetically sound Caucasians, and hasten the repatriation of American Negroes to independent Black African nations.
